REARI-RJ NETWORK OF INTERNATIONAL OFFICES OF RIO DE JANEIRO STATE
HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS
AND UTRECHT NETWORK

April 2016

The REARI-RJ Network, hereinafter referred to as REARI-RJ, is a nonprofit association that brings together managers, directors or those responsible for international affairs of 12 Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) in the State of Rio de Janeiro. The REARI-RJ Network is headquartered in the institution to which the President-elect is bound and will last as long as there is interest in its associates. <https://www.facebook.com/REARI.RJ.Network>

The Utrecht Network, hereinafter referred to as UN, - as an association of 32 universities located in 27 European countries, cooperating in the area of internationalisation - actively promotes student and staff mobility, summer schools, joint degree programmes, researchers' mobility facilities etc. among its members. It also encourages professional development of its staff by offering an international forum. <http://www.utrecht-network.org/>

CONVINCED of the benefits of this collaboration in promoting cooperation between and amongst all respective institutions

REARI-RJ and UN hereby agree to the following:

Sign a comprehensive Memorandum of Understanding by the end of the year 2016 regulating the details of the cooperation.

Aims:

- run an exchange programme with mutual tuition waivers for undergraduate, graduate and post-doctorate students
- open professional development activities for staff to each other
- cooperate in organising intensive short term programmes

Since both networks agree with the statements and conditions set forth above, they sign two original copies of this declaration.
